Re: FOIA Request Dated April 21, 2015

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in reference to my previously submitted FOIA request dated April 21, 2015, which I am enclosing with this letter for reference. I neglected to specify that I submitted my April 21 request on behalf of my client, Navistar, Inc. ("Navistar"). Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best regards,

To Whom It May Concern:

We request pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. 552, as amended, copies of all records maintained by EPA in any format (including electronically) in any or all of the documents described as follows:

- All documents relating to the consideration by the United States Environmental Protection Agency of applications for certification of Navistar, Inc.'s ("Navistar") 13L Engine submitted to the Agency by Navistar in calendar year 2012. More specifically, this request applies to Navistar's 13L certification applications, dated January 31, 2012 and May 21, 2012 (which was re-submitted May 23, 2012).

If you review any Document that fits the request but decide to withhold it in whole or part based on a claim of Exemption, please so state together with identification of the Exemption the Agency determines to be applicable and a brief description of the basis for that determination in your response.

We are not requesting a fee waiver in connection with this FOIA request, and assure payment of fees incurred from EPA's response to this request.

We look forward to receiving your response within the twenty business days required by the Freedom of Information Act.

Best regards,
